

Gryphon

GRYPHON

SKY HUNTER • MOUNTAIN KING • WILD SENTINEL

A majestic and powerful gryphon, ruler of the high winds and rugged peaks. Fiercely territorial and incredibly intelligent, gryphons are noble creatures with a strong sense of pride and keen perception. This individual is a highland hunter, adapted to cold mountain air and swift aerial pursuit.

SPECIES:	Gryphon
TYPE:	Monstrosity (Beast)
SIZE:	Large
LENGTH:	8–10 ft (beak to tail tip)
WINGSPAN:	18–22 ft
HEIGHT:	5–6 ft (at shoulder)
WEIGHT:	500–700 lbs
HABITAT:	High mountains, cliffs, open skies
ALIGNMENT:	Typically Neutral
INTELLIGENCE:	High (problem solving, memory, awareness)
DIET:	Carnivore (deer, goats, large birds, etc.)

COLOUR PALETTE

Feather Base	Feather Highlights	Beak / Talons	Fur	Shadow Grey	Ice Blue

TALONS

Powerful grasping talons for snatching prey and climbing rock faces.

NOTES / BEHAVIOUR

- Highly territorial; protects nesting grounds fiercely.
- Builds nests on inaccessible cliffs and mountain peaks.
- Communicates with sharp calls and body language.
- Loyal to mates and offspring; remembers allies and enemies.

TURNAROUND

WING DETAIL

Strong primary feathers for lift and speed.

Layered secondary feathers provide maneuverability and control.

HEAD STUDY

Keen eyesight (far range).

Hooked beak for tearing and ripping.

POSES & MOVEMENT

SCALE REFERENCE

Revision #1

Created 2026-08-20 08:59:51 UTC by Slitzer

Updated 2026-08-20 09:00:18 UTC by Slitzer