

Nisa Thorn

Blackthorn Academy student and Edric’s intellectual rival. Nisa is an exceptionally perceptive young mage from Edric Valemont’s academy days. She deliberately involved Edric in solving a complex two-person arcane ward, later revealing that the supposed prize had merely been an excuse to study how he thought. She considered Edric brilliant but dangerously undisciplined and warned that seeking power without understanding would eventually kill him.

ARCANE SCHOLAR / STUDENT MAGE

Occupation • Region • Archetype

A diligent and observant young scholar devoted to the study of runes and ancient magic. She is intelligent, reserved, and deeply curious, with a calm presence and a sharp mind. Her focus and discipline set her apart among her peers, and she is driven by a desire to uncover forgotten knowledge and unlock its potential.
