Break the Chains - Varrick Songweave

Mind Whispers - Varrick Songweave

[Verse 1]

Silver sigils shining, dwarven prayer in rhyme,
Moon-Dancer blessings guard our minds in time.

Rigg kicks doors flying—"Leeroy!
Jenkins!"

High Jinks stalks the shadow, claws and emerald moan.

Soup-pot steam and torch-smoke swirl
around the hall;

Four blank-eyed captives crumble to a silent fall.

[Chorus]

Raise your wrench, let the eldritch spark—

Break the chains, light a torch in the dark!

From steel and spell to the psyonic
scream,
Heroes carve freedom through an Underdark dream.

[Verse 2]

Green-rug chamber cracking—Mind-Flayer's hungry flare, Valen's crimson Firebolt sparks the violet air.

Dino's gear-forged hound, jaws of whirring grace,
Leydrick's holy fire scorches tentacled face.

One flayer flees in twilight, portal
starts to hum, Tentacle left twitching—its war is just begun.

[Bridge] (half-tempo, chant-style)

Whispered Deep-Speech, diary lost and found,
Crystal blades that sigh without a sound.
Sixty coins for Jinks, note it, bard,

[Verse 1]

Down in the dark where the mind-whispers bite,
Drow runes glowed silver, warding our sight.

With steel-cored faith and a cat's swift grace,

We marched 'til the prison showed hate on its face.

[Chorus]

□□Break the chains, let the captive cry,
Wrench swings high and Eldritch lights fly.

Mind-Flayers fall where the brave hearts
rise,

We break the chains and sever their ties!

[Verse 2]

Quaggoth claws thundered, guards fought to live,

Rigg tripped the beast with a Cunning-Strike give.

Leydrick's flames blessed the tide of the fight,
While Dino's defender bit deep in the night.

[Bridge]

One Flayer fled in a violet flash,
Its echoing shriek our unfinished task.
But diaries stolen and keys in our hand,
We'll free every soul in this cursed land.

[Final Chorus]

□□Break the chains, under torch-lit
stone,

With wizard's fire and a tabaxi's tone.

Villagers saved, our legend remains—

Onward we ride to shatter their reigns! □□
