

?? Dren

☐ Quick Facts

- Player: MichaelKong / Mike
- Race: Mountain Dwarf
- Class: Fighter
- Known level progression:
  - Level 2 (Session 1)
  - Level 3 (Session 2–3)
  - Party reached Level 4 (Session 4; Dren’s exact class level at that point is Not stated)
- Faction: Undecided / Not stated
- Status notes: Absent in Session 5 (played by DM)

☐ Role in the Party

Dren is the group’s reliable frontliner: the one who takes space, soaks pressure, and keeps enemies busy while everyone else does the “clever” stuff. When things go bad, he’s still standing—or standing on 3 HP and pretending that’s normal.

☐ Personality & Character Style

- Unyielding: Repeatedly framed as a “hold the line” presence in combat.
- Direct problem-solver: Less talk, more impact (as reflected by his repeated frontline highlights).
- Quietly hard to kill: Survived the sewer fight with 3 HP and stayed in the mix.

Appearance / gear aesthetic:

Dren

Voice / mannerisms: Not stated.

✕ Combat Style (Observed)

- Primary role: Frontline bruiser
- Weapon noted: Maul (explicitly referenced in Session 3 combat notes)
- Spell use: “Frontlined with maul and spells” is noted in Session 3, but specific spells are not stated.

☐ Notable Moments (Chronological)

- Session 1 — The brain-eaten incident: Dren was found being tortured in the sewers alongside Floon Blagmaar (torturers included a wizard, a Mind Flayer, and an Intellect Devourer). The Intellect Devourer consumed Dren’s brain, incapacitating him.
- Session 1 — Back from the brink: The party got Dren to a temple; Floon funded a Wish spell that restored Dren’s mind.
- Session 2 — Legal consequences: Dren was imprisoned for 10 days, fined 32 gold, and placed on 3-month probation. (Reason for arrest: Not stated.)
- Session 3 — Fireball aftermath investigation: After Silas identified the blast as magical, Dren confirmed the Necklace of Fireballs was what it appeared to be.
- Session 3 — Sewer ritual fight: Held the frontline with maul (and unspecified spells), surviving with 3 HP.
- Session 4 — Gralhund Villa bloodbath: Cleared rooms and fought side-by-side with Captain John through multiple ambushes inside the villa.
- Session 5 — City of the Dead pressure: While absent (played by DM), Dren is recorded as frontlining against Zhentarim and later against duergar.

☐ Relationships & Connections

- Captain John Mercer: Explicitly paired in Session 4 as the duo clearing rooms and pushing the fight forward.
- Floon Blagmaar: Key turning point: Floon funded the Wish spell that restored Dren after the Intellect Devourer attack.
- Legal system (Waterdeep): Arrest → imprisonment → probation (Session 2).
Ongoing impact on Dren personally: Not stated.

☐ Gear, Loot & Resources

Confirmed personal items claimed: Not stated in the notes provided.

Notable gear referenced:

- Maul (combat reference)

 Legal Status & Consequences

- Sentence (Session 2): 10 days imprisonment + 32 gold fine + 3-month probation
- Current legal status after Session 2: Not stated.

 Open Questions

- What subclass is Dren using (if any)? Not stated.
- What spells did Dren use in Session 3? Not stated.
- Any defining personal goals, grudges, or ties in Waterdeep after the brain incident and the arrest? Not stated.